Last updated and approved by the Board on 6 February 2026

SiteMinder Limited Securities Trading Policy

1 Purpose

- (a) The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) prohibits the trading in shares, options, debentures (including convertible notes) and other securities (securities) of a company by any person who is in possession of price sensitive information regarding that company that is not generally available. The Corporations Act:
 - (i) imposes substantial penalties on persons who breach those provisions; and
 - (ii) applies to the extent of any inconsistency between it and this policy.
- (b) This policy regulates dealings by directors and certain officers of SiteMinder Limited (SiteMinder or the Company) and other designated persons, in securities in SiteMinder about which they acquire Inside Information through their position or dealings with SiteMinder.
- (c) This policy is not designed to prohibit SiteMinder Persons from investing in SiteMinder securities, but does recognise that there may be times when directors, officers or certain employees cannot or should not invest in SiteMinder securities.

2 Definitions

For the purposes of this policy:

- (a) "Blackout Period" has the meaning given in section 4.1 of this policy;
- (b) "Board" means the board of directors of the Company from time to time;
- (c) "Company Secretary" means the secretary of the Company from time to time;
- (d) "Directors and Senior Management" means each director of SiteMinder, the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, Managing Director and Company Secretary of SiteMinder, Key Management Personnel and persons as the Board decides from time to time;
- (e) "Inside Information" has the meaning given in section 3.2 of this policy; and
- (f) "Key Management Personnel" has the meaning given in the Corporations Act.
- (g) "SiteMinder Person" means:
 - (i) all Directors and Senior Management and any other person designated a SiteMinder Person by the Board in writing; and
 - (ii) also includes:
 - (A) a company or trust controlled by any of the persons referred to in sub-paragraph (i) above; and for the purposes of section 4 only, a spouse (including a de facto spouse), child (including a step-child or adopted child), a close relative, a person financially dependent on or acting in concert with any of the persons referred to in sub-paragraph (i) above.

3 Insider trading

3.1 General prohibition on insider trading

- (a) SiteMinder Persons may not, while in possession of Inside Information concerning SiteMinder, in breach of the Corporations Act:
 - (i) buy or sell any SiteMinder securities at any time;
 - (ii) procure another person to deal in SiteMinder securities in any way; or
 - (iii) pass on any Inside Information to another person for that person's own personal gain by dealing in SiteMinder securities in any way.
- (b) All SiteMinder Persons are prohibited from dealing in the securities of outside companies about which they acquire Inside Information through their position with SiteMinder.
- (c) The requirements imposed by this policy are in addition to any legal prohibitions on insider trading. Trading in SiteMinder securities is prohibited at any time by a director or a SiteMinder Person if that person possesses Inside Information.

3.2 Inside Information

A SiteMinder Person is responsible for assessing whether they possess "Inside Information". This occurs where:

- (a) the person possesses information that is not generally available to the public and, if the information were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of SiteMinder's securities (or a decision whether or not to trade in them); and
- (b) the person knows, or ought reasonably to know that the information is not generally available and, if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of SiteMinder's securities

A reasonable person would be taken to expect information to have a material effect on the price or value of securities if the information would, or would be likely to, influence a person who commonly invests in securities to either deal or not deal in securities in any way. Inside Information in relation to the securities of outside companies has the same meaning for the purposes of this policy, except that references to "SiteMinder's securities" should be read as references to the securities of the outside company.

4 Restrictions on trading in Blackout Periods

4.1 Blackout Periods

- (a) SiteMinder Persons, subject to sections 4.3 and 6, may not buy or sell SiteMinder securities during a Blackout Period.
- (b) "Blackout Periods" are times when SiteMinder Persons must not deal in the Company's securities.

The following are mandated Blackout Periods:

- (i) from the close of the ASX trading day on 31 December each year, until 10:00am (Sydney time) on the ASX trading day following the day on which the Company's half yearly results are released to the ASX;

full year results are released to the ASX;

- (iv) any other period that the Board specifies from time to time.

If 30 June or 31 December are not ASX trading days, then the Blackout Period begins on the preceding ASX trading day.

During Blackout Periods SiteMinder Persons must not deal in any of the Company's financial products or securities, or in any securities related to them.

4.2 Notifications

(a) SiteMinder Persons must:

- (i) prior to dealing in SiteMinder securities outside a Blackout Period or where paragraph 5 requires the person to obtain a consent under paragraph 4.2, notify the relevant person in paragraph 4.2(c) (each an Authorising Officer) of their proposed dealing and obtain consent from the Authorising Officer(s); and
 - (ii) confirm that they are not in possession of any Inside Information; and
 - (iii) undertake any dealing authorised under paragraph 4.2(a)(i) within 10 business days of receiving the consent from their Authorising Officer(s), provided that the Authorising Officer(s) has not provided notice to the person withdrawing the consent;
 - (iv) after the authorised dealing with the SiteMinder securities, provide the Authorising Officer(s) with a transaction confirmation, with a copy to the Company Secretary.
- (b) Any consent may be refused without reason and may be withdrawn at any time if new information arises or circumstances change. A refusal is final, confidential and must not be disclosed.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt, the SiteMinder Person seeking authorisation cannot be their own Authorising Officer.
- (d) Authorising Officer

For the avoidance of doubt and without limiting the generality of this policy, entering into protection arrangements includes entering into transactions which:

- (c) Amount to "short selling" of securities beyond the SiteMinder Person's holding of securities;
- (d) Operate to limit the economic risk of any SiteMinder Person's security holding (e.g. hedging arrangements) including SiteMinder's securities held beneficially (for example, in trust or under any SiteMinder incentive plan) on that SiteMinder Person's behalf; or

- (b) Unless paragraph (a) applies, SiteMinder Persons may, directly or indirectly, grant any form of security (whether by way of charge, mortgage, pledge or otherwise) over any SiteMinder securities, to secure any obligation of that SiteMinder Person or any third party or enter into any margin lending arrangement involving SiteMinder securities, with consent under paragraph 4.2.
